WELCOME TO FUTURE TECHNOLOGY WEEK

How would you like to explain to your boss, that while most of the major buyers of your products sat and did business with your competitors, your company just watched from the sidelines?

While DigiRobotics penned a $26million deal, and DarkMatter signed an MOU with telecoms giant Du, 80% of all other exhibitors reported that they would definitely achieve their ROI target for the 2017 show, with 20% of those expecting to exceed their ROI by over AED 1million. For the companies that chose to sit 2017's show out, we're now seeing unprecedented demand from them to book space for 2018.

There must be something to the fact that 91% of our exhibitors want to rebook again for next year, and it all comes down to the outstanding value proposition GISEC and IOTx have over all other events: business just gets done here.

When we surveyed our visitors, we learned that 55% come purely to source new products, and 35% of them have an active RFP or equivalent. And that figure is growing – with the region under unprecedented cyber attacks, and governmental mandates to adopt emerging technology with the Dubai 10x Strategy, the business case for partnering with the show gets stronger and stronger.

We're excited to grow for the 5th consecutive year, and we've invested more money and more time in to further consolidating our position as the best business development opportunity for cyber and tech companies in the Middle East – this is where money comes to meet solution providers.

Natalya Kaspersky, co-founder of Kaspersky Lab, and President of InfoWatch, gives a keynote speech at GISEC 2017.

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT

"The exposure the event offers is tremendous and the kind of solutions and innovative technologies on display are truly unique."

Muzammil Shamim, Al Naboodah Group Enterprises

"This is our third year at the show and we are amazed with the numbers of visitors who approached our stand and were willing to buy products on the spot. The visitors came from all over the GCC. We will definitely book a stand for the 2018 edition."

Suzanne Ward, VP Marketing, Carbon Black

"With the increase in cyberattacks around the world, GISEC is the perfect exhibition with a high quality of exhibitors and speakers tackling cyber threats. The exhibition is growing in size but it already has all the components to be the biggest in the region and beyond."

Abdul Latheef, Airport Systems Manager, at Dubai Aviation ENG Projects

"It is a great platform for Lenovo to portray our security solution offerings to more than 6000 top security professionals and decision makers"

Russell Theron, Lenovo Regional Manager Gulf, KSA & Pakistan

"Having chosen GISEC as our entry-point into the UAE and GCC markets, we are impressed with the exhibition attendance and the level of engagement with potential clients and partners, as well as government agencies."

WHAT'S NEW IN 2018

RED HAT CLINIC

For the first time ever, ethical hackers will be on site at a purpose built drop in centre for any visitor wanting to get some free pen-testing done on their company systems or devices.

BIG BASH

With so many people coming from abroad its about time we organised a big party on the opening night to get people socialising and experience the amazing nightlife of Dubai.

SECRET BRIEFINGS

Some things are best said behind closed doors, without recording devices and definitely without press in attendance. This show will see a series of secret briefings led by experts for focused audiences – invitation only.

CONNEXIONS PROGRAMME

With over half of our visitors looking to buy products imminently, we're launching a connexions programme – helping them identify the right vendors before they arrive and setting up meetings at their stand.

GENIUS TALKS PROGRAMME

We understand the unique talents employed by our exhibitors, that's why we're formalising all the on-stand talks they deliver into a three day agenda, and pushing the visitors to go and hear these geniuses talk.

TALENT SPOTTING

Looking to employ some seriously talented cyber and tech professionals? Then advertise your vacancies through our app and website for free – we will push the region's best talents in your direction.

POWER PLAYERS – DIAMOND & PLATINUM SPONSORS

Two of the most powerful sponsorship options available. These give you outstanding visibility, and premium speaking slots during the conferences. Less prominent than Strategic Sponsorship, but nevertheless positioned so you will remain front of mind when those end users who participate in the show go back to their companies. Both packages are the same, except Diamond guarantees a morning speaking slot, soon after the Strategic Sponsor's speaking slot. The Platinum speaking slot will be the best available after Strategic and Diamond.

DIAMOND

AVAILABLE: 2 for GISEC, 2 for IOTx

COST: AED 125,000

PLATINUM

AVAILABLE: 3 for GISEC, 3 for IOTx

COST: AED 110,000

THE INFLUENCERS – GOLD, SILVER & PANEL SPONSORS

You don't want to make a big investment, but you still want to get your message across. These packages get you on the speaking faculty – Gold and Silver offering you a presentation on stage; Panel sponsor ensuring you sit with a group of expert end-users that we've put together to create a fantastic discussion.

In either case, don't worry about the conference room getting empty by the time your speech comes up – in 2017 we had full rooms right until the end of the day – for both GISEC and IOTx.

You may not get the glam and the glitz of the previous packages, but you'll be positioned as a thought leader, in front of many of your prospective clients.

GOLD
AVAILABLE: 2 for GISEC, 2 for IOTx
COST: AED 85,000

SILVER
AVAILABLE: 2 for GISEC, 2 for IOTx
COST: AED 75,000

PANEL
AVAILABLE: 4 for GISEC, 4 for IOTx
COST: AED 37,000
Does not include individual speaking slot – you will share the stage for 45minutes with at least two other panelists.

With Dubai Police as official supporters of GISEC and IOTx in 2017, Brigadier General Khaled Al Razooqi unveiled the new Dubai Police RoboCop – a news story that would go viral and receive over 3.5million views

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS – SECRET BRIEFINGS

How would you like to get at least 25 of your most important potential prospects in a room for 90minutes and show them how talented your company is?

Sometimes, what you have to say is too sensitive for an open forum, or your message is so focused its better for you to have 25 of the right people in the room, rather than a larger audience.

In 2017 we called these Breakfast Briefings or Lunch Briefings, and they proved so popular they sold out. The concept is simple – we provide a meeting room, you provide a superstar speaker with something end users really want to learn about. We then deliver at least 25 senior end users to your meeting for the 90min briefing. We'll agree with you before signing whether your audience focus is realistic – you may only want to meet Government or Banks; we can accommodate most variations because of our 400,000 strong database powered by the world's 3rd largest tech exhibition, GITEX.

Mark Hughes, Global CEO of BT Security, delivers a closed-door briefing to senior IT Security professionals from industry and government across the GCC

SOUL OF THE PARTY – LUNCH & BIG BASH SPONSORS

One of the most frequently asked questions from visitors and exhibitors alike is "so what are we doing this evening" – that's why for the fist time we are launching a big bash evening party to go with the already popular delegate lunch for 600 people.

Dubai is one of the most vibrant and exciting cities in the world and has a truly outstanding nightlife. As this is GISEC's 5th birthday, we want to ensure the senior attendees who travel from abroad get the opportunity to let down their hair and party one evening – and there's few better ways to do business than to relax after a hard day of pitching and prospecting, than to talk in a comfortable and fun setting.

With the lunch – all delegates and VIPs get access, and so you'll be positioned as the company who provided a delicious spread. Your literature and giveaways will be distributed and you'll have brand domination in the dining room.

With the big bash, we'll let you choose the venue and provide the refreshments. We'll guide you through it and ensure all visitors – especially the most senior – know its an official function and that they should attend and let their hair down. If you'd like to provide entertainment or give a small speech during the bash you're all the more welcome.

LUNCH SPONSOR

AVAILABLE: 1 for whole show

COST: AED 115,000

Does not include individual speaking slot at conference – you will share the same branding benefits as Gold, Silver and Panel Sponsors

MAKING NOISE – X LABS SPONSORS

With 4 out of 5 attendees telling us they come to the show to listen the free talks, then the X Labs is one of the strongest opportunities to get your brand across to thousand of our delegates.

For the third consecutive year we are repeating the X Labs – free talks delivered by experts, given throughout the day. Most of the talks take a technical angle with speakers coming from expert vendor companies. Nevertheless this doesn't stop a full audience with standing room only.

X LABS SPONSOR

AVAILABLE: 3 for whole show

COST: AED 30,000

Does not include individual speaking slot at conference – you will share the same branding benefits as Gold, Silver and Panel Sponsors. Includes 2 X labs presentations (30 minutes each)

SPEAK AT THE X LABS (30 MIN SPEECH)

AVAILABLE: 24 for whole show

COST: AED 5,000

Includes no sponsorship branding benefits

FIRST CONTACT – LANYARD, BAG & REG SPONSOR

7,350 delegates all have to walk through the front doors, past registration. They carry show bags around the floor with them, and the last thing they see of the show is normally when they take off their badge on the way home – to see the lanyard branded with a company name.

If branding and visibility is as important to you as thought leadership, then the three most visible options outside the conference rooms are lanyards, bags and the registration counters – all attendees look at them, multiple times a day, and that could be your company logo that leaves that lasting impression.

JOIN THE GENIUS PROGRAMME

At the 2017 show, one of the highlights were the amazing on-stand demonstrations and talks delivered by our exhibitors. This year, we want to formalise these and ensure if you're planning to deliver small seminars or demos you get as big an audience as possible.

The one thing about GISEC and IOTx is our vendors employ geniuses – and our visitors love to listen to them speak. That's why we're going to encourage you to build within your stand a small lecture or demo area. Once your series of talks are decided, send the topics to us and we will create a digital programme online and in app for all visitors to follow and get notifications when your talk is happening.

Conrad Prince, UK Cyber Ambassador and former Deputy Director (Head of Operations) at UK intelligence agency GCHQ, delivers a speech at GISEC 2017
